(b) It provided that teachers who have worked in a difficult station for 3 years may as far as possible, be transferred to stations of their choice or to schools near those stations, if a request for transfer is made by them.

(c) A Committee was set up to identify difficult stations and recomrriend incentives that could be given to the employees at these stations so as to attract them. One of the terms of reference of this Comrnittee was To suggest consequential amendments to the exising transfer policy".

(d), The recommendations of this Committee were as given below:

(i) Residential accommodation should invariably be provided to the teachers.

(ji) Medical facilities should be made available to the teachers and their families.

(iii) Ministry of Defence may be requested to extend canteen facilities to teachers.

(jv) All facilities for the education of the children be afforded.

(v) Shorter period of tenure for teachers at such stations should be prescribed.

(vi) Vehicles may be provided to teachers for going to the nearest marking centre bi-weekly.

(vii) Some special pay may be provided.

(viii) An advance increment of pay may be given.

(ix) TADA may be paid to the newly appointed teachers posted to the stations.

(x) TA/DA and disturbance allowance may be paid for all transfers from such stations.

(xt) Public Sector Undetarkiug schools should be set up only if all the required facilities are made available.

(xii) In project areas, project allowance as admissible to the employees of that particular project should be paid to the teachers.

(e) The provisions relating to posting in difficult stations was discontinued consequent on the decision of the Board of Governors of the Kendriy Vidyalaya San-yath'an to abolish tenure as a basis for transfer. This has been done to promote a sense of identification amongst teachers with the Vidyalayas where they are working.

(f) No, Sir.
